National Constitution Preamble

We, citizens of the United States of America, of the Jewish faith, who served in the Wars of the United States of America, in order that we may be of greater service to our country and to one another, associate ourselves together for the following purposes:

To maintain true allegiance to the United States of America; to foster and perpetuate true Americanism; to combat trends that impair the efficiency and permanency of our free institutions; to uphold the fair name of the Jew and fight his or her battles wherever unjustly assailed; to encourage the doctrine of universal liberty, equal rights, and full justice to all men and women; to combat the powers of bigotry and darkness wherever originating and whatever their target; to preserve the spirit of comradeship by mutual helpfulness to comrades and their families; to cooperate with and support existing educational institutions and establish new educational institutions; and to foster the education of ex-servicemen and ex-servicewomen of our faith; to honor their memory and shield from neglect the graves of our heroic dead.
ARTICLE I

Name

This Organization shall be known as “Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America, Inc. (JWV), chartered by an act of the Congress of the United States of America.

ARTICLE II

This Organization is civilian and shall not be used for the promotion of political candidates, partisan politics or issues and interests not authorized by the National Organization; and the use of its name, uniform, insignia and titles of rank, past or present, directly or indirectly, for any such purposes, is expressly forbidden.

ARTICLE III

Organization

Section 1. The bodies of this Organization, in order of rank, shall be:

a) National Convention, an annual assembly;
b) National Executive Committee (NEC);
c) Departments;
d) District or County Councils;
e) Posts.

Section 2. There shall be associated with, but subordinate thereto, and under the general supervision and control of this Organization, the following Organizations.

a) Subsidiary Organizations;
b) Posts or other echelons created outside the United States of America; such other Auxiliary Organizations as may be created by two thirds (2/3) vote of the NEC of this Organization.

Section 3. All Subsidiary Organizations and all members, units or Echelons of this Organization and of all Subsidiary Organizations shall, at all times, be subject to this National Constitution, Bylaws, Manual of Ceremonies, Rules, Regulations and Policies of the JWV, as amended from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Section 1. Membership in this Organization shall be limited to Active, Associate, Honorary, In-Service, Posthumous, Life, Distinguished Life, all as hereinafter defined and classified. No person who promotes, or is a member of any organization or group which believes in, or advocates, bigotry or the overthrow of the United States government by force of arms or subversion, shall be eligible for any class of membership, or status in, or with, the JWV.

The membership and status lists of the JWV, and any of its Auxiliary, Subsidiary, affiliate and subordinate Organizations, are proprietary and confidential, and are the sole property of JWV, and may not be circulated, delivered or transferred, without the express written consent of a committee of the National Commander, National Vice Commander, National Executive Director and the Chairperson of the NEC. Failure to comply shall be a disciplinary offense under the terms of the Bylaws.

Section 2. Active Membership. Any person of the Jewish faith of good character, who is a citizen of the United States of America, who was regularly enlisted, drafted, inducted or commissioned, and who was accepted for and assigned to active duty in the uniformed services of the United States of America (including the National Guard, Reserves, U.S. Public Health Service (USPHS) and National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), in any of its wars, campaigns, conflicts, or as may be further set forth in the bylaws; or who being a citizen of the United States of America, at the time of his or her entry therein, served on active duty in the United States of America, during any of the said wars, campaigns, conflicts, or expeditions; may be elected to active membership, provided, however, that no person, discharged or released under conditions other than honorable from any such service, shall be eligible to membership.

Acceptance to Active membership shall confer full and equal rights with all other active members of the JWV, without limitation, except as may be provided in the Bylaws, and provided that the member is in good standing with the National Organization.

Section 3. Associate Membership. Any person who is a citizen of the United States of America, and of the Jewish faith, not otherwise eligible to Active Membership, shall be eligible for Associate membership and be entitled to all the rights and privileges of active members, except the right to act as a delegate of any echelon, provided they qualify as follows:

a) Who, during the time of any war, campaign or conflict in which the United States of America was an active participant, was a member of the armed forces of any country allied to the United States of America in that war, campaign or conflict, provided however, that no person, discharged or released under conditions other than honorable, general or medical from any such service shall be eligible to membership;

b) Who, having served in the armed forces of the United States of America (including the National Guard and Reserves), on active duty during a time other than as provided for in the eligibility period provisions of the National Bylaws, provided however, that no person discharged or released under conditions other than honorable, general or medical from any such service, shall be eligible to membership.

Section 4. Life Members. The National Executive Committee is authorized to make adjustments in life membership arrangements with the Posts, District and County Councils, Departments or Members at Large, as it may deem proper under the circumstances.

(a) Active Life Members. All Active members who become Life members shall be considered Active members, for all purposes, without the obligation for payment of dues.

(b) Associate Life Members. All Associate members who become Life members shall be considered Associate members, for all purposes, without the obligation for payment of dues.

Section 5. Distinguished Life Members. Upon certification by the National Executive Director, that any veteran otherwise eligible to Active or Associate membership, is a service-connected paraplegic, a double amputee, or is suffering from a service-connected total blindness, the NEC, after investigation and report, and upon recommendation of a National Executive Committee person may award such a veteran a Distinguished Life Membership. Such member, upon obligation, should be considered an Active or Associate member, as determined by the eligibility requirements, for all purposes, without the obligation for payment of dues.

Section 6. Posthumous Membership. The JWV may, with the consent of the next of kin of a member of the Uniformed Services of the United States, of the Jewish faith, who died while on active service of the armed forces of the United States of America, as set forth for Active membership.

Section 7. In-Service Membership. Any person, who is a citizen of the United States of America, of the Jewish faith, and of good character, and who is on active duty in any of the branches or units of the Uniformed Services of the United States of America, shall be accepted to active membership in the JWV, while engaged in that service. Active membership shall confer full and equal rights with all other active members of the Organization during such term. In-Service members shall be exempt from the payment of dues; and Posts shall be relieved from the obligation of transmitting the applicable per capita tax to National Headquarters, Departments, District or County Councils for such member.

Section 8. Honorary Membership. A citizen of the United States of America, not eligible for active membership, who has performed distinguished or faithful service for the United States of America, or for this Organization, may be elected to Honorary membership. Honorary membership in the JWV may be conferred only by a National Convention, after investigation and report received from a committee designated by the NEC.

ARTICLE V
Patron

Section 1. Patron. Any supporter of JWV that upholds, reflects, and pursues the values of JWV may become a Patron. A Patron is often a community leader, veteran of other faiths, or family member of a JWV member. Patrons are not members of JWV but are welcome to engage with local Post and support JWV programs.

ARTICLE VI
National Convention

Section 1. The supreme power of this Organization shall be lodged in the National Convention, which shall meet at least once a year.

Section 2. The National Convention shall be held at such time, place and manner (in-person, virtually or a combination of both) as shall have been determined by the NEC; and membership at a National Convention of this Organization shall be restricted to the following:

a) Voting members of the NEC who shall vote at the same time with their Posts;

b) Delegates.
Section 3. Every voting member of the NEC, who attends at such Convention, except the delegates of a Post, shall be entitled to one vote. No person who is a full-time paid employee of any Echelon of the Organization shall vote at any Convention or meeting of any Echelon of this Organization.

Section 4. Delegates. Each Post shall be entitled to one (1) delegate for each ten (10) members, or major fraction thereof. Six (6) or more delegates shall constitute a fraction thereof, based upon the numerical strength of members in said Post not less than thirty (30) days prior to the convening date of the National Convention. Each Post may select from its membership such delegates at a meeting, and shall forward delegates’ names, certified by the Post Commander and Post Adjutant, to the NEC not later than fifteen (15) days prior to the commencement of the National Convention. In the absence of such certification, a member in good standing of any Post registered at the National Convention, shall be considered a delegate from a Post.

Section 5. The majority of a delegation of a Post may vote the full strength of a Post present, but, in questions where a record vote is taken, then, the votes of those voting in the minority of any Post delegation shall be deducted from the strength of such delegation and recorded separately. When the delegation of a Post is equally divided, the strength of such delegation shall be recorded in equal proportion.

ARTICLE VII
National Officers

Section 1. At each National Convention, there shall be elected a National Commander and a National Vice Commander, from a different Department. They shall serve a term commencing with the adjournment of the National Convention and ending with the adjournment of the next National Convention. Should the Commander become incapacitated and be unable to continue performance of duties, the Vice-Commander will assume responsibility until the next National Commander is elected.

Section 2. When a vacancy occurs in the office of National Vice Commander, it shall be filled by the Chairperson of the NEC. The Chairman of the NEC will act as National Vice Commander until an election will be held at the next National Convention. No person elected at a National Convention shall be eligible to succeed themself.

National Executive Committee

Section 1. Between National Conventions, this Organization shall be governed by the NEC, which shall be composed of the following: (1) National Commander; (2) National Vice Commander, (3) elected National Executive Committee representatives as provided in the Bylaws; (4) Department Commanders, or in their absence, Department Senior Vice Commanders, if the said Department Commander is the sole representative of said Department on the National Executive Committee; (5) the National Judge Advocate; (6) the National Adjutant; (7) the National Quartermaster, (8) the National Inspector; (9) the National Editor; (10) all Past National Commanders. Each shall have but one (1) vote.

Section 2. Members of the NEC shall assume their duties immediately upon their installation by the respective Departments. The NEC shall convene within the seven (7) days next preceding the opening of the National Convention, and the first order of business shall be to elect, from its membership, a Chairperson and a Vice Chairperson, who shall serve in such capacity until their successors have been elected. The National Adjutant shall serve as the Secretary of the NEC.

Section 3. No two (2) members of the same Post may serve at the same time as an elected National Executive Committeeperson.

Section 4. National Executive Committeepersons shall serve a term of one (1) year, commencing with the adjournment of the Department Convention at which they were elected. In the event of a vacancy, the successor shall serve only the balance of the term of their predecessor’s office.

Section 5. Vacancies in the office of elected National Executive Committeepersons shall be filled by the Department from which the vacancy occurred. The candidate must be a member in good standing.

ARTICLE IX

Departments

Section 1. Current and new Departments shall be chartered by the NEC and shall be composed of the Posts within their respective areas, as defined in the Bylaws. Any new Department shall have a minimum of two hundred and fifty (250) members before being eligible for charter application and approval.

Section 2. Between Conventions, each Department may be governed by a Council of Administration or Executive Committee, or both (in accordance with the Department Charter, Constitution and/or Bylaws).

ARTICLE X

District or County Councils

Section 1. Each Department, through its Council of Administration or Executive Committee, shall have authority to create intermediate bodies between the Posts and the Department, to act as a liaison between such Echelons, and for the purpose of promoting and implementing National and Departmental programs and policies.

Section 2. Such intermediate bodies, which shall be known as District or County Councils, shall have such powers as may be determined by the National Constitution and/or Bylaws, and Department Constitution and/or Bylaws, not inconsistent therewith.

Section 3. Between Conventions, each District or County Council shall be governed by a Council of Administration or Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XI

Posts

Section 1. Applications for Post charters, consisting of at least ten (10) eligible members, shall be directed to the National Headquarters, and shall contain the proposed name of the Post and its location, where applicable. In the event of the disapproval of such application by any Echelon, notice of such disapproval shall be forwarded forthwith with reasons for such action, in writing, to National Headquarters. A report of such action shall be made to the next NEC meeting for approval or disapproval of such action.

The NEC action shall be final. Charters shall be issued and signed by the National Commander and countersigned by the National Adjutant.

Section 2. Posts, as Subsidiary Echelons, may be created outside of the United States of America, consisting of members of the Jewish faith, who served in the Uniformed Services of the United States of America, as defined in this National Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 3. No Post shall be named for any living person, or any industrial, economic, union, business, fraternal, religious, or political group or employ the use of ideological reference, or the name of any other national or local organization.

Section 4. When a new Post has been approved by a department, and the National Commander determines that the new Post has met all requirements for a charter, and there are more than four (4) weeks until the next NEC meeting, the National Commander may issue a provisional charter to the new Post. A report of such action shall be made to the next NEC meeting, for approval or disapproval of such action pursuant with Section 1 of this Article.

ARTICLE XII

Finances

Section 1. The revenues of the National Organization shall be derived from an annual per capita tax, and from such other sources, as may be approved by the NEC.

Section 2. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the National Organization and of all Echelons shall begin on the first (1st) day of July and shall end on the thirtieth (30th) day of June in each year.

Section 3. During the year in which the new Post is instituted, and only during that said first year, the annual per capita tax dues for the members of said Post, shall be payable from the day commencing with the approval of the Post charter by the NEC, and prorated as follows: prior to January 1st, fifty (50) percent of the per capita tax shall be paid; thereafter, the per capita tax for the said fiscal year shall be applied to the next following fiscal year.

Section 4. The full amount of annual dues or fees for each new member, membership reinstatement or other members, shall be transmitted to the National Quartermaster. Per capita tax shall be waived for two (2) years following the members release from active duty of any Jewish veteran. Provided, however, if such member has been released from active duty after April 1, per capita tax shall be waived for the following two (2) fiscal years. The provisions of this Section shall apply to all members of the Uniformed Services eligible for membership.
ARTICLE XIII
Subsidiary Organizations

Section 1. There is hereby recognized Subsidiary to the JWV, whose program shall be coordinated with the National JWV Program and which shall be governed by this National Constitution & Bylaws.

Section 2. The National Constitution & Bylaws of any Subsidiary Organization, and any amendments thereto, shall be subject to the approval of the NEC of the JWV. They shall be submitted in the first instance to the National Judge Advocate of the JWV for approval, prior to consideration by the NEC and any such Constitution, Bylaw or amendment shall not become valid and effective until the approval of the said National Judge Advocate and of the said NEC. The National Constitution & Bylaws of any Subsidiary Organization, and any Amendment thereto shall not be in conflict with parts of the JWV Constitution & Bylaws.

Section 3. All Subsidiary Organizations and all members, units or Echelons of this organization and all Auxiliary Organizations shall, at all times, be under the general supervision and control of JWV, subject to this National Constitution & Bylaws.

a) A Subsidiary Organization, and its units or Echelons, may administer their own operations and employ their own staff and provide for their own dues’ structures.

b) A Subsidiary Organization, and its units and Echelons, may issue their own membership cards.

c) Except as may presently exist, all and any charters for a Subsidiary organization, or any of its units or Echelons, shall be separately issued by the National Executive Committee of the JWV. No Subsidiary Organization, nor any of its units or Echelons, shall be deemed to exist, or to be affiliated, with this Organization unless, and until, a valid charter is issued to such Subsidiary Organization, unit or Echelon.

d) In addition, to any other mechanism for revocation of a charter issued to a Subsidiary Organization and its units and Echelons, such a charter may be revoked by a two thirds (2/3) vote of the members present of the NEC of this Organization.

Section 4. Any and all existent Subsidiary Organizations at the time of the adoption of this Amended Constitution may continue to function as previously approved by JWV.

ARTICLE XIV
Amendments

This National Constitution may be restated, amended, altered, or modified in either of the following ways:

Section 1. By the National Convention, by a two thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and voting at a stated meeting thereof; provided, however, that such restatements, amendments or amended sections have been approved and are presented by any Echelon and/or the National Organization, and or National Executive Committee person, and notice thereof has been given each Echelon by the National Adjutant, in writing, or by electronic communication posted no less than thirty (30) days before the assembling of the National Convention. It shall be the duty of the National Adjutant to give such notice, provided that his or her failure to do so shall not prevent subsequent consideration by the National Convention, where such amendments have been duly presented to the National Adjutant for action.

Section 2. By a Constitutional Convention assembled for the purpose of considering the proposed restatement, or amendments or amended sections. Representation at such Convention shall be limited to Post delegates. Each Post shall be entitled to the same vote such Post had at the last National Convention immediately preceding such Constitutional Convention. An affirmative vote of two thirds (2/3) of those present and voting shall be necessary for the adoption of any restatement, amendment or revision.

Section 3. Membership-at-Large. Persons otherwise eligible to active membership may be elected to Membership-at-Large, or an Associate Membership-at-Large, upon submission of an application for admission, in writing, on a form furnished by National Headquarters, and with certification by the NED of compliance with membership regulations, and the approval of the NC.

Section 3(a). For the purpose of determining the membership numbers of the Department, National Convention delegates, the NEC, and the National Policy Committee, all Members-at-Large shall be credited to the Department wherein the Members - at - Large maintain their mailing addresses. Any qualified person within a Department shall be calculated as a Department member.

Section 4. Associate Membership. Any person who is a citizen of the United States of America, and of the Jewish faith, not otherwise eligible to Active Membership, shall be eligible for Associate Membership and be entitled to all the rights and privileges of active members, except the right to act as a delegate of any Echelon, provided he or she qualifies as follows:

a) Who, during the time of any war, campaign or conflict in which the United States of America was an active participant, was a member of the armed forces of any country allied to the United States of America in that war, campaign or conflict, provided however, that no person, discharged or released under conditions other than honorable from any such service shall be eligible to membership; or

b) Who, having served in the armed forces of the United States of America (including the National Guard and Reserves), on active duty during a time other than as provided for in the eligibility period provisions of the National Bylaws, provided however, that no person discharged or released under conditions other than honorable from any such service, shall be eligible to membership.

Section 5. In-Service Members. Any member of the JWV, who is honorably serving in the uniformed services of the United States of America on active duty, shall be exempt from the payment of dues while on active duty, and shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of active members, without limitation. Posts shall be relieved from the obligation of per capita tax to National Headquarters, Departments, District or County Council for such members, while on active duty and for one (1) year after release from active duty.

Section 6. Applications. Every application for admission to active or associate membership shall be submitted on forms furnished by National Headquarters. No application shall be approved unless it bears the endorsement by an active member in good standing, who personally examined the applicant’s qualifications for membership. The application shall be submitted to National Headquarters to be part of the archives and records.

Section 6(a). Each Post shall be the judge of its own membership, not inconsistent with the provisions contained within this National Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 6(b). If any applicant shall be barred or rejected, his or her admission fee shall be returned to them. If barred or rejected for a second time, he or she may not make any further application until after the expiration of one year from the date thereof. The names of barred or rejected candidates shall be forwarded forthwith to the National Adjutant.

Section 6(c). Upon application, the applicant shall swear or affirm to support the Constitution of the United States of America and the National Constitution and Bylaws of the JWV. They shall receive a membership button from the Post.

Section 6(d). A prospective member, whether In-Service or not, who has properly executed a membership application, shall not be required to execute any additional application or acknowledgment before becoming a member. An In-Service member shall be recertified annually in order to remain a member.

Section 6(e). Any member of a defunct Post may, upon application, receive a transfer to any other accepting Post, or become a Member-at-Large.

Section 7. Transfer. Any member in good standing, against whom no charges exist, must, upon his or her written application, be given transfer effective upon acceptance, to membership in another Post. Upon presentation of the name, he or she shall be accepted. Dues up to the time of the acceptance of the transfer shall belong to the Post granting the same. Such voluntary transfer shall not take place more than once in each membership year. Upon transfer, the Post shall promptly notify the National Adjutant and the Post to which he or she previously belonged.

Section 8. Patrons. Any supporter of the organization that upholds, reflects, and pursues the values of JWV may become a Patron. They are often family of members, local community leaders, and veterans of other faiths. While Patrons are not members of JWV, they are welcome to engage with their local Post support JWV programs.

Section 9. Membership in more than one post. Members may maintain membership in more than one Post. Such member shall designate one of the Posts as his or her primary Post and shall be permitted to vote, hold office, serve as a delegate, and be included in the determination of Post strength restricted solely to the primary Post.

Section 10. Honorary Members. An Honorary Member may be elected only by the National Convention, after a favorable recommendation by the NEC. Prior to the consideration by the NEC, the proposed granting of such Honorary Membership shall be referred to a Committee appointed by the NEC, which shall investigate the proposal, report and recommend action to be taken thereon, at the next meeting of the NEC. The proposal for such election shall come before the National Convention for consideration and vote.

Section 10(a). Honorary Membership may be terminated only by action of the National Convention, and only in the same manner, and by the same vote, as is required for election and may, upon cause, be suspended between Conventions by the NC or the NEC, pending final action by the Convention. However, this shall not preclude an Honorary Member from resigning, and the National Convention or the NEC may act upon such resignation.

Section 10(b). Honorary Members may be appointed to such committees, or may be called upon for such services, as the NC may designate.

Section 11. Auxiliary Organizations. All Auxiliary Organizations and all members, units, or Echelons of this Organization, and of all Auxiliary Organizations, shall, at all times, be under the general supervision and control of this Organization, and subject to this National Constitution and Bylaws, the Manual of Ceremonies, and all Rules, Regulations and Policies of this Organization.

Section 11(a). There shall be associated with, but subordinate to and under the general supervision and control of this Organization, the following Auxiliary Organizations:

1) An Auxiliary;

2) Posts of other Echelons created outside the United States of America;

3) Such other Auxiliary Organizations as may be created by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the NEC of this Organization;

Section 11(b). Except as they may presently exist, any charters for Auxiliary Organizations or any of its units or Echelons, shall be separately issued by the NEC to the Auxiliary Organization. However, none of its units or Echelons may be deemed to exist or to be affiliated with this Organization unless and until a valid charter by JWV is issued to such Auxiliary Organization, unit or Echelon. An Auxiliary Organization and its units and Echelons may issue their own membership cards. In addition to any other procedure for revocation of a charter issued to an Auxiliary Organization and its units and Echelons, such a charter may be revoked by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the NEC of this Organization.

ARTICLE II

Per Capita Tax, Dues, and Indebtedness

Section 1. Per Capita Tax. There is hereby assessed upon each and every active and associate member in good standing, as hereinafter provided, a per capita tax to be paid solely to the National Organization of an amount to be determined by the NEC payable from the annual dues received by the National Organization. The Post, where applicable, shall upon receipt of dues from a member, be responsible to forward the said full annual dues to the National Headquarters for all new, delinquent, or other members. There shall be no per capita tax assessed upon Life Members, In-Service Members and Honorary Members by, or on behalf of, the National Organization or by, or on behalf of the respective Department, District or County Council, and/or Post. The fiscal year for the National Organization, Departments, Districts and County Councils, and Posts shall be from July 1st to June 30th in the following year. Notwithstanding the above, the NEC is hereby authorized to establish from time to time multiyear and discount programs.

Section 1(a). Each Department shall separately receive a per capita tax of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) and may assess, upon each and every member in good standing, a sum not exceeding an additional five dollars and seventy five cents ($5.75) per capita tax for the Department, if so authorized by a Department Convention, or duly called Department meeting, with at least a thirty (30) day written prior notice thereof given to the Posts; provided, however, that the total per capita tax received by any Department, including the per capita taxes for the District or County Council, shall not exceed the total sum of eleven dollars and twenty five cents ($11.25).

Section 1(b). Each District or County Council within a Department shall separately receive a per capita tax of twenty-five cents ($0.25) and may assess, upon each and every member in good standing, a sum not exceeding an additional three dollars ($3.00) as per capita tax, for the use of the District or County Council within a Department, if so authorized by a regularly convened District or County Council Convention, after written notice of at least thirty (30) days to all Posts within the District or County Council. In the event there are no District or County Councils within a Department, then the Department shall receive an additional fifty cents ($.50); provided, however, that the total per capita tax for any Department, including the per capita taxes for the District or County Council, shall not exceed the total sum of eleven dollars and twenty-five cents ($11.25).

Section 1(c). No per capita tax or dues need be paid for any member who has been released from active duty with the uniformed services of the United States of America, during one (1) year of such release. The provisions of this Section shall apply to all members of the uniformed services eligible for membership.

Section 2. Dues. The JWV dues year is January 1st through December 31st. The annual dues of each active and associate member shall be paid directly to the National Quartermaster. The National Quartermaster shall directly bill each member. Each Post shall, in writing, advise National Headquarters as to its dues structure, and any future change therein. Each Department, District or County Council shall, in writing, advise National Headquarters of the amount of annual per capita tax due to it, and of any future change therein. If the dues of any member have not been paid by such member to National Headquarters by January 31st, or a new member is admitted into membership, the Post Quartermaster is authorized to collect dues from such new or delinquent member, and to transmit all such dues and other such dues paid to the Post Quartermaster, upon receipt and in full to the National Quartermaster. All dues collected by the National Quartermaster, from the members and the Posts, shall be maintained in an account from which allocation and distribution shall be made, no less than monthly, respectively to the National Organization, Department, District or County Council and Post.

Section 2(a). Each Post shall fix the dues to be charged to its members. New members associating themselves with the Organization after July 1st shall pay a full year’s dues, applicable to the following calendar year. All such dues must be paid in advance. Completed membership applications for eligible veterans are to be forwarded to National Headquarters upon receipt.

Section 2(b). A member may be suspended from membership if the per capita tax is not paid on or before April 1st in any year; however, all rights shall be promptly restored upon payment of dues and per capita taxes. The number of delegates a Post shall be entitled to at the National Convention shall be based upon the paid-up membership reported by National Headquarters thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the National Convention.

Section 3. Indebtedness. National Headquarters shall withhold, as offset, any amount due by way of refund or dues rebate to any Echelon in complete or partial settlement of any debt due National Headquarters from such Echelon.

Section 3(a). A Post, delinquent in the payment of indebtedness to National Headquarters, or its Department or its District or County Council, shall be deprived of all representation and shall have no vote at the Convention or meetings of any Echelon. All rights shall be promptly restored upon the proper payments of such deficiencies.

Section 3(b). National Headquarters, upon notification by a Department, shall withhold, as offset, any amounts due by way of refund or dues rebate to any Echelon in said Department, in complete or partial satisfaction of any amount due to said Department, and transmit said amount withheld to the Department due said indebtedness.

Section 3(c). National Headquarters, upon notification by a District a County Council, shall withhold, as offset, any amount due by way of refund or dues rebate to any Echelon in said District or County Council, in complete or partial satisfaction of any amount due to said District or County Council, and transmit said amount withheld to the District or County Council due said indebtedness.

Section 4. Financial Report: All Echelons of the JWV must submit, by May 1, a report to the National Finance Board, on a form to be issued by National Headquarters. This report shall pertain to Echelon finances, relating to all fund raising under the name of the JWV, and donations made by that Echelon for the preceding fiscal year. Each Echelon must maintain books and records, subject to audit, in support of the information contained in the report for a minimum of six years. Echelons not submitting said report by May 1 of each year shall not be considered in good standing with the National Organization, Department or District or County Council. All rights shall be promptly restored upon the filing of the report.

Section 5. Rules And Regulations for The National Finance Board. In order for National Headquarters to properly implement National programs, lobby for veterans’ issues, actively publicize our views and maintain service offices throughout the country, proper funding is needed. It is of utmost importance that all Echelons comply with the rules and regulations of the National Finance Board in order for National Headquarters to continue providing these services to you and the members of your Post.

Submitting an Annual Financial Report:
All fund-raising activities conducted in the name of any unit of the JWV or any entity associated in any way with a JWV unit, or any corporation or any other entity organized by or controlled by any unit of the JWV, which includes all subordinate Auxiliary Organizations, shall file with the National Finance Board an Annual Financial Report for fundraising projects. Annual Financial Reports and instructions shall be sent from National Headquarters.

All Reports for fundraising and reports of donations made to outside organizations by the Auxiliaries shall be sent to National Headquarters.

The Annual Financial Report must be signed by the unit Quartermaster/Treasurer and countersigned by the unit Commander/President submitting the Report. All Reports must be sent to National Headquarters by May 1st.

The National Finance Board, having sole and exclusive authority to grant a permission to fundraise, will do so no later than thirty days after receipt of a letter of request for permission to fundraise.

Government Regulations:

All echelons are required to submit to the Federal Government the appropriate IRS Form 990 (for example, Form 990-N or Form 990-EZ) and submit a copy of that form to National Headquarters with the annual financial statement. The forms are for our records and may be audited by the IRS. JWV is required by law to notify the IRS annually of the names and addresses of each of its units.

Echelons involved in fundraising that requires reports sent to governmental authorities, e.g., Bingo Commission reports, must forward a copy of that report to National Headquarters at the same time the original is submitted to the appropriate authority.

All Posts, Departments, Districts, County Councils, must have an Echelon Federal ID (FID) number. Application of which will be provided by JWV National Headquarters upon request.

Procedures of The JWV National Finance Board:

In order to preserve the fiscal integrity of the JWV and to provide proper planning and continuity of the JWV programs and operating budget, the following procedures have been established by the JWV.

1. All monies raised through the National Finance Board are to be used exclusively for JWV and its operations and such other vital projects as may be approved by the NEC.

2. Contributions by JWV National Echelons, not used for the benefit of nationally recognized Veterans Service Organizations or Departments of Veterans’ Affairs, will require matching funds to National. Exceptions, in writing, to the matching funds requirement may be approved by the NC.

3. In order for an Echelon to maintain its voting and membership privileges a report must be filled with JWV National.
ARTICLE III
National Executive Committee (NEC)

Section 1. The NEC shall meet within the seven (7) day period preceding the scheduled opening date of the National Convention. In addition, thereto, the NEC shall hold a minimum of one more meeting. A special meeting may be called upon written (virtual or hard copy) request by twenty-five (25) voting members of the NEC, or its Chairperson or the NC. Between meetings of the NEC, the executive power of this Organization shall be vested in the NC.

All NEC meetings can be held in person, virtually or combination of both methods.

Section 2. Fifteen (15) voting members from at least three (3) different Departments shall constitute a quorum for meetings or actions of the NEC.

Section 3. There shall be elected at each Department Convention a NEC member as authorized by Article VII of the National Constitution. Each Department shall be entitled to one (1) elected NEC member in the event that said Department has a membership in excess of one hundred and fifty (150) members. Such elected NEC member shall serve until the adjournment of the next succeeding annual Department Convention. In the event of a vacancy in such office, it shall be filled by the next Department Council of Administration or Department Executive Committee meeting. No person shall, during any continuous time period, serve more than three (3) consecutive annual terms as an elected NEC person. For the purpose of this section, service during any portion of an annual term, shall constitute service for an annual term. There shall be an additional elected NEC representative for each increment as follows: For every two hundred (200) members above the initial one hundred fifty (150) members, one (1) additional National Executive Committee person, to a maximum of six (6).

Section 4. The NEC may constitute itself as a tribunal of the JWV to air, determine, and adjudicate disputes arising between the various Echelons of the Organization.

Section 5. The NEC shall have full power to: authorize the sale by, or purchase of, for the JWV, or any of its Echelons, real property deemed necessary and/or incidental for the corporate purposes of the JWV or any of its Echelons to direct the execution by the NC, on behalf of the JWV, of any deed or document pursuant to such authority, and affix to any such deed or document the seal of the JWV as attested to by the National Adjutant or National Quartermaster. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the authority of the National Housing Commission, or any corporation designed to implement the National Housing Commission program, from entering into contracts approved by the National Judge Advocate (NJA) for execution by the NC, or from accepting or conveying any title to real or personal property. The National Headquarters of this Organization shall be located at 1811, R Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20009-1659.

Section 6. No Echelon shall be permitted to buy, sell, or donate, other than to, and for, the JWV or to, and for, the JWV, U.S.A., National Memorial, Incorporated, or in any way, manner, or fashion, effectuate the transfer, conveyance, or alienation of any real property, without the express prior written approval of the NC and NJA.
ARTICLE IV

Committees and Commissions

Section 1. National Board of Inquiry. There is hereby created a National Board of Inquiry, which shall consist of six (6) members, in good standing each of different Departments: and a Chairman appointed by the NC, who shall have a vote only in the event of a tie. At the meeting of the NEC preceding the National Convention, and following the election of the Officers of the NEC, there shall annually be elected from the voting membership two (2) members who shall each serve a three (3) year term. In the event of a vacancy, such vacancy shall be filled with a member in good standing by election at the next NEC meeting.

Section 1(a). In accordance with any disciplinary provisions of these laws Bylaws, the Board of Inquiry shall consider all charges and specifications against any Echelon of this Organization, member, or a Subsidiary Organization. The report of the Board of Inquiry shall be sent to the National Adjutant, who shall forward same to the President of the National Court, if the same reflects a probable cause of action. If not, the report shall be filed with the National Adjutant and may be appealed by the charging party to the President of the National Court.

Section 2. National Budget Committee. There is hereby established a National Budget Committee, which shall consist of six (6) members appointed by the National Commander, each of whom shall be a member of a different Department; and a Chairperson appointed by the NC; all of whom shall serve a term contemporaneous with the NC. The National Budget Committee shall meet at the same time and place as the NEC, and at such other times as a majority of such Committee shall request, or as the Chairperson shall call. The NED and the Chairman of the National Personnel Committee shall be an ex-officio members of the National Budget Committee.

Section 2(a). The National Budget Committee shall prepare an annual budget and present it for approval to the NEC.

Section 3. National Convention Committee. There is hereby established a National Convention Committee, which shall consist of six (6) members, a Chairperson, and a representative from the host Department, all of whom shall be appointed by the NC. The Chairperson shall have a vote only in the event of a tie.

Section 3(a). The NC shall, as soon as practicable after his or her election, appoint six (6) members in good standing for a one-year (1) term of office contemporaneous with the term of the NC. No Department shall have more than one (1) member on the National Convention Committee. In addition to the regularly appointed Committee, the NC, after the Convention site has been selected by the NEC, shall appoint an additional member, from the Department in which the Convention is to be held, to serve for that said Convention only.

Section 3(b). The NED, the Chairperson of the NEC, the National Budget Committee Chairperson and the National Personnel Committee Chairperson, or their designees, shall be ex-officio members of the National Convention Committee, without vote.

Section 3(c). The National Convention Committee shall, subject to the approval of the NEC; recommend the time and place of the National Convention; the rates and fees of the National Convention; and the registration fee for delegates.

Section 3(d). The National Convention Committee shall recommend arrangements and programs for the National Convention. The National Convention Committee may function through subcommittees among which the various activities of the Convention may be divided.

Section 4. National Advisory Council. There is hereby created the National Advisory Council (NAC), whose purpose is to provide guidance to the JWV, when the NEC and the National Convention are not in session.

Eligibility to this Council shall be limited to PNCs, PDCs and current DCs, all elected by their Departments to the Council, as prescribed in Section 4(a).

Section 4(a). Each Department in excess of two-hundred and fifty (250) members, as determined by JWV National as of July 1 of each year, shall be entitled and shall elect one member to the NAC for every two-hundred and fifty (250) members in the Department. In addition, the NAC shall consist of the NC, the NVC, a Chairperson selected by the NAC, and two (2) at-large representatives of the smaller Departments, appointed by the NAC Chairperson. At-large representatives shall be rotated every year.

Section 4(b). Each member shall serve a term of one-year (except the Chairperson, who shall serve a term of three (3) years; commencing from the start of the next National Convention to the start of the next subsequent National Convention.

Section 5. National Court. There is hereby created a National Court, which shall consist of six (6) members in good standing and shall each be of different Departments; and a President appointed by the NC, who shall have a vote only in the event of a tie. At the meeting of the NEC preceding the National Convention and following the election of the Officers of the NEC, there shall annually be elected from the general membership two (2) members who shall each serve a three (3) year term. While they shall be voting members when elected, it is not necessary that they continue to be members of the NEC to serve on the Court. In the event of a vacancy, such vacancy shall be filled with a member in good standing, by election, at the next NEC meeting.

Section 5(a). The National Court shall consider all charges and specifications against any Echelon of this Organization, or a person or a Subsidiary Organization or as may be presented by the National Board of Inquiry.

Section 6. National Finance Board. There is hereby created a National Finance Board consisting of six (6) members and a chairperson. The NC each year shall appoint three (3) members to a term of two (2) years with the provision that no Department shall have more than one (1) member on the Board. Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the NC for the balance of the term. All terms shall coincide with the National Convention. In addition, to the above membership the NC will appoint a Chairperson whose term shall be contemporaneous with the NC. The NC, the National Budget Chairperson and the NJA shall serve as ex-officio members of the Board, without vote.

Section 6(a). The National Finance Board shall supervise Echelons to maintain compliance with the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations of the National Organization as they pertain to the various Echelons, their annual accounting, raising, depositing and spending of funds; and alienation of other assets.

Section 6(b). Each member may have only one (1) vote. The Chairperson shall have a vote only in the event of a tie.

Section 7. National Housing Commission. There is hereby established a JWV National Housing Commission consisting of six (6) members and a Chairperson. The NC each year shall appoint three (3) members to a term of two (2) years with the provision that no more than two (2) of these members may come from any one Department. Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the NC for the balance of the term. All terms shall coincide with the National Convention. In addition, to the above membership, the NC will appoint a chairperson whose term shall be contemporaneous with the NC The Chairperson shall have a vote only in the event of a tie. The NC, the NED, the National Budget Chairperson and the NJA shall serve as ex-officio voting members of the Commission.

Section 7(a). The National Housing Commission shall have an annual certified independent audit and shall make an annual report to the National Convention. The National Housing Commission shall report the execution of any contract to the NEC. The National Housing Commission shall not financially obligate the JWV beyond such financial authorization as may have been approved by the NEC, or as may be contained in the National Budget, provided, however, that, once made, the National Budget Committee shall not change any such allocation, during the budget year, without prior approval of the NEC.

Section 7(b). The JWV National Housing Commission is hereby empowered to entertain contracts for the construction, ownership, sponsorship, maintenance, or management of housing, nursing home, extended care facilities, or other like projects as permitted by Federal, State or Local law or program. In this regard, all Echelons and/or Corporations or other entities are, at all times, subject and subordinate to the National Organization; and, therefore, copies of proposed and actual certificates of incorporation, Bylaws, applications, plans, contracts, revisions, or amendments thereto relating in any way to a project, must be submitted to the Housing Commission for their review, advice, and approval. All proposed projects and the actions of the National Housing Commission are to be reported to the NEC. All contracts entered into by the National Housing Commission shall be reviewed by the NJA prior to execution. All contracts shall be executed only by the NC. The Commission is authorized to create Corporations to implement and carry out any projects approved by the NEC subject to approval by the NJA as provided for under the provisions of the National Bylaws.

Section 8. National Personnel Committee. There is hereby established a National Personnel Committee, which shall consist of six (6) members appointed by the NC, each of whom shall be a member of a different Department; and a Chairperson appointed by the NC; all of whom shall serve a term contemporaneous with the NC. The National Personnel Committee shall meet at the same time and place as the NEC, and at such other times as a majority of such Committee shall request, or as the Chairman shall call. The NED and the Chairperson of the National Budget Committee shall be an ex-officio member of the National Personnel Committee.
Section 8(a). The National Personnel Committee shall provide for, and appoint or employ, such officers and employees, as it may deem necessary, for the proper administration of the affairs of this Organization, and shall prescribe their duties and emoluments.

Section 8(b). The National Personnel Committee shall keep and update a record of all rules and regulations relating to personnel practices, conditions of employment, and job descriptions on all positions established.

Section 8(c). The employment of the NED shall be subject to the approval of the NEC. No employee occupying the position of NED shall be discharged, or his or her employment terminated, except after a hearing before a Board of three (3) members, especially appointed for that purpose by the NC. A majority vote of such Board shall be controlling. The NED shall be given at least fifteen (15) days written notice of the time and place of hearing, personally or by certified mail, by the National Adjutant. His or her failure to attend or be represented at such hearing shall in no way prevent the hearing from proceeding and a decision made.

Section 9. National Policy Committee. There is hereby established a National Policy Committee, chaired by the NC, which shall consist of; the NVC, the NED, the Chairperson of the NEC, the NJA, the National Editor, the Immediate Past NC, and members in good standing and elected or appointed from the respective Departments as follows: Departments with less than five hundred members - one (1) representative; Departments with five hundred (500) or more members - two (2) representatives. The NJA, the NED, and the National Editor shall be non-voting members of the National Policy Committee. Elected National Policy Committee persons shall serve from the time of the Department elections until their successors are chosen. For the purpose of this section, membership is defined as a member in good standing, and paid membership numerical strength of the Department as of July 1st prior to the commencement of the next ensuing National Convention, as recorded in the books and records at National Headquarters. The elected or appointed National Policy Committee persons must be voting members of the NEC during their term of service. No person shall, during any continuous time period, serve more than three (3) consecutive annual elected or appointed terms as a Policy Committee person.

Section 9(a). The National Policy Committee shall have the responsibility to consider and propose policy for the Organization. All decisions of the National Policy Committee shall be referred to the NEC for approval.

Section 9(b). Each member may have only one (1) vote. The Chairperson shall have a vote only in the event of a tie.

Section 9(c). The National Policy Committee may meet between regular sessions of the NEC or at the call of the NC or the National Policy Committee Chairperson.

Section 10. There shall be established a National Marketing Committee, which shall consist of at least six (6) members and a chairperson appointed by the NC.

Section 11. Method of Committees and Commissions Meetings. All committee and commission meetings can be held in person, virtually or combination of both methods.
ARTICLE V
National Convention

Section 1. The election of the National Commander (NC) and National Vice Commander (NVC) shall take place at the National Convention.

Section 2. To be a candidate for NC or NVC, one must be a member of the JWV in good standing for the current year and for the previous three (3) years prior to the National Convention, where the name is submitted.

Section 3. To be presented as a candidate for NC or NVC at the National Convention, the proposed candidate must be endorsed by at least three (3) posts from each of three (3) different Departments and notice thereof given to the National Headquarters at least sixty (60) days prior to the National Convention.

Section 4. Any member considering a candidacy for NC or NVC must provide their DD 214 or equivalent to National Headquarters no later than sixty (60) days prior to the National Convention.

Section 5. The NC and NVC shall serve a term commencing with the adjournment of the National Convention, and ending with the adjournment of the next National Convention.

Section 6. When a vacancy occurs in the office of NC, it shall be filled by the NVC until an election will be held at the next NEC meeting or within sixty (60) days, whichever occurs first. No person elected at a National Convention shall be eligible to succeed him or herself to the office of NC.

Section 7. The National Convention, upon the recommendation of the NEC, may award to any person, for special service on behalf of this Organization, or otherwise deemed worthy of special recognition, “the meritorious service award and medal,” otherwise known as the “Gold Medal of Merit.” In making its recommendation to the National Convention, for any such award, the NEC must declare the exceptional services to the Organization and/or the nation which, in its judgment, warrants such award.

Section 8. At the National Convention, and in elections in every Echelon of this Organization, a majority vote of the members eligible to vote shall be necessary in any matter properly presented for vote or for election to any office. If there is no one elected on the first ballot, the name of the member receiving the least number of votes shall be dropped and a new ballot taken, and so on, in successive ballots, until someone is elected.

Section 9. Every member of the National Convention, or any member of this Organization, attending any convention or meeting of any Echelon of this Organization, who is eligible to vote at such Convention or meeting, shall exercise the right of franchise, freely and voluntarily, as his or her conscience shall dictate, without being bound by any mandate or Echelon or unit rule from any Echelon of this Organization.

Section 10. Notice and Attendance. All National Convention meetings can be held in person, virtually or combination of both methods.
ARTICLE V
National Officers

Section 1. The NC shall, as soon after his or her election as practicable, appoint the following Officers: NJA, National Quartermaster, National Inspector, and National Adjutant (who shall also serve as the Secretary of the NEC), all of whom shall have a voice and a vote on the NEC.

Section 2. The NC may appoint such other National Officers as he or she deems necessary and assign to them their duties and titles. The NC may appoint such committees as he or she deems necessary, and may assign such committees their respective responsibilities.

Section 3. Except as otherwise provided in the National Constitution or Bylaws, Officers and committee members appointed by the NC shall serve for a term contemporaneous with that of the NC appointing them. The NC may remove at his or her discretion, any Officer or committee member appointed by him or her. The NC shall have the right to make appointments to fit any vacancy that may exist, in the case of any appointed Officer or committee member, except as otherwise may be provided in the Bylaws.

Section 4. The NC shall enforce the National Constitution and Bylaws of the JWV and the orders of the National Convention and NEC and shall approve and sign all contracts that have been reviewed and found compliant by the NJA. He or she may issue such orders as may be necessary in emergency and extreme circumstances.

Section 5. The NC shall consider the requests of any Echelon of the Organization, or any individual member of the Organization, which or who becomes involved in a lawsuit while allegedly carrying out the activities or programs of the Organization. The insurance company shall be notified when a claim is made. In the event the NC determines that the petitioning Echelon or individual is entitled to have the action pursued or to be defended by the Organization, he or she shall have full authority to recommend the same, and the NJA shall be responsible for supervising the same. In the event of a legal suit against the National Organization, the NC and/or the NJA, shall take immediate steps to provide for the defense of said suit.

Section 6. National Executive Director. The affairs of this Organization shall be administered by the NED. The NED shall be employed by the JWV with the consent of the NEC, and shall be directly responsible to the NC and National Personnel Committee Chairperson for the proper execution of the NED’s duties and responsibilities. The NED shall assist the NC in carrying out the mandates of the National Convention and the NEC, and shall coordinate the activities of all paid personnel in the discharge of their duties.

For such purposes the NED is, consistent with National Budget funding availability, empowered to employ and discharge personnel (subject to the provisions of the National Constitution and Bylaws and Personnel codes or agreements). The NED is directly responsible for operation of the Veterans Service Officers (VSO) Program. The NED shall coordinate activities of this Organization with other civic, veteran, and patriotic organizations. The NED shall be responsible for the implementation of policies and decisions in all areas, as well as coordination of activities of all appointed National Officers and committees. The NEC may vest in or delegate to the NED any further powers necessary to carry out the aforementioned responsibilities, or such other duties.
as may be assigned to him or her by the NEC. The NED shall make a written report at each NEC meeting, at each annual Convention, and at such other times as in the NED’s judgment shall be deemed appropriate, or as the National Personnel Chairperson may require.

Section 7. No person employed, or in a voluntary status, on the administrative staff of the Organization, shall be deemed an Officer of the Organization by reason of such employment or voluntary status.

Section 8. National Judge Advocate. The NJA shall advise the National Officers and the NEC on all legal matters, including the construction and interpretation of the National Constitution and Bylaws: and all applicable contracts; and shall perform such other duties as are usually incident to the office. The NJA shall be a licensed attorney, admitted to the practice of law, and in good standing. The NJA shall not render opinions to individual members or lower Echelons except by, and through, members of the NEC. Opinions rendered by Judge Advocates of lower Echelons shall be subject to review of the NJA, upon presentation to the NJA through a member of the NEC, but only after review and attempted resolution by the Judge Advocates of all lower Echelons. It shall be the duty of the NJA to approve and certify the Constitution and Bylaws or any amendments thereto of all Echelons and of any National Subsidiary Organization. The decision of the NJA on questions concerning construction and interpretation of the National Constitution and Bylaws as referred to the NJA by a Post, County or Department, shall be final, provided, however, that the NJA’s decision may be overruled by the National Convention, or by a majority vote of the members of the NEC present and voting at any regular or special meeting.

ARTICLE VII
Departments

Section 1. Whenever no less than three or more Posts of the Organization are established in any State, Territory or adjoining States of the United States of America, a Department may be organized, provided there are not less than one-hundred and fifty (150) members therein.

Section 2. An application for the establishment of a Department must be approved by a majority of the Posts, within the geographical area of the proposed Department, after due notice has been given to the members thereof. When so approved the application may be made in writing by the Commanders of the Posts approving same, and shall be forwarded to the NEC. Upon approval by NEC, a charter shall be issued.

Section 3. When so established, the Department shall be the governing body of all Districts, Counties, and Posts within its jurisdiction, subject to the authority of the National Organization.

Section 4. Each Department shall hold an annual Convention, but the time for the holding of such annual Convention shall not be less than thirty (30) days prior to the convening of the National Convention for such year.

Section 4(a). Such Convention may not be held outside the geographic territory of the Department; except that a Department Convention may be held in the geographic area of another Department if such other Department consents thereto in writing within thirty (30) days of written request. If consent to the request is not denied within thirty (30) days from the date of the request, then it shall be considered automatically approved.
Section 4(b). For conventions, meetings, events or similar presentations, the geographic area of the District of Columbia for this purpose shall automatically include a contiguously permissible 15-mile area into the States of Maryland and Virginia. To avoid possible conflicts, at the beginning of each calendar year, the Department of the District of Columbia shall present to the Department of Maryland and the Department of Virginia/North Carolina its calendar with non-conflicting dates and places, subject to any further agreements, to avoid any conflict with future conventions, meetings, or events or similar presentations.

Section 4(c). Each Department shall hold a convention which may be held in person, virtually, or a combination thereof.

Section 5. Any member of the Department in good standing has a right to vote at the Department convention.

Section 6. The mode of procedure at a Department Convention shall follow that of the National Convention. Post representation at Department Conventions shall be the same as that provided for in the National Convention. A Post shall not be entitled to representation at a Department Convention unless it is in good standing with National Headquarters, its District or County Council, and its Department.

Each Post representation in such Department Convention shall be based upon the last per capita tax to National Headquarters, filed not later than fifteen (15) days prior to such Convention.

Section 7. The Officers of a Department shall be, and shall rank in the following order, each title to be preceded by the designation “Department”:

a) Commander;
b) Vice-Commanders;
c) Judge Advocate;
d) Adjutant;
e) Chaplain;
f) Quartermaster;
g) Sergeant-at-Arms or Officer of the Day; and such other Officers as may be determined by the Department Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 8. Between Conventions, each Department shall be governed by a Council of Administration or Executive Committee, which shall have all the powers of the Department Convention, except where limited by the National Constitution and Bylaws, or the Constitution and Bylaws of the Department.

Membership in the Council of Administration or Executive Committee shall be as determined by the Department Constitution and Bylaws, not inconsistent with the National Constitution and Bylaws. The Council of Administration or Executive Committee shall meet at least once every three (3) months.

Section 9. It shall be the duty of the Department Commander to preside at all meetings of the Department Convention, Council of Administration or Executive Committee. The Department Commander shall, as soon as possible after his or her election, appoint the following Officers, unless the same are elected at the Department Convention:

a) Judge Advocate;
b) Adjutant;
c) Quartermaster;
d) Chaplain;
e) Chief Aide;
f) Chief of Staff;
g) Historian;
h) Inspector;
i) Patriotic Instructor;
j) Sergeant-at-Arms or Officer of the Day;
k) Surgeon; and such other Officers as may be determined by the Department Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 9(a). The Department Commander may appoint such other officers or deputies as assistants to the elected or appointed Officers or committees. The Department Commander may, with or without cause, remove all appointed Officers at his or her discretion. The Department Commander shall be the Trustee of all property of the Department. The Department Commander shall take charge of the installation of the Posts and their Officers, and may appoint deputies to act for him or her. The duties of the Department Officers shall conform as nearly as possible to the duties as set forth for the National Officers holding the same or similar offices.

Section 10. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Department Commander, the Senior Vice Commander will be the successor.

Any other vacancies occurring in elective Department offices shall be filled as provided by the Department Constitution and Bylaws, or in the absence of such provisions, by an election held by the Council of Administration or Executive Committee, at a meeting specially called for that purpose.

Section 11. Each Department shall adopt a Constitution and Bylaws governing its conduct and Posts within its jurisdiction, provided that such Constitution and Bylaws are consistent with the National Constitution and Bylaws. Each Department shall take necessary steps to abate any infraction of such Constitution and Bylaws, subject to review on appeal to the NJA. All Constitution and Bylaws, or any amendment thereto, shall not become effective until certified by the NJA.

Section 12. Whenever less than three (3) Posts remain in existence in any Department, the NEC may revoke the charter of such Department, and such Department charter, records, and property shall at once become property of the JWV Building Fund for the benefit of JWV National, and turned over to the JWV NC or such other officer as he or she designates. Without the consent of the NEC, no state may withdraw from a multi-state Department if it would result in there being less than three (3) states.

Section 13. Department Meetings. All Department meetings can be held in person, virtually or combination of both methods.

Section 14. Bronze Medal of Merit. The Department Convention, upon recommendation of the Department Council of Administration or Executive Committee, and with the approval of the NEC, may award to any person, for special service on behalf of this Organization, or otherwise deemed worthy of special recognition, “a meritorious service award and medal, “otherwise known as the “Bronze Medal of Merit.” In making its recommendation to the Department Convention for any such award, the Department Council of Administration or Executive Committee must declare the exceptional services to the Organization and/or to the nation which in its judgement, warrants such award.

ARTICLE VIII
District or County Councils

Section 1. Whenever three (3) or more Posts of the Organization are established in any county, or in areas of close geographical proximity, a District Council may be organized. Such District Council may, at its option, be known as a County Council. When so established, the District or County Council shall be the governing body of all Posts within the District or County, subject to the jurisdiction of the National and Department Organization.

Section 2. An application, for the establishment of a District or County Council, must be approved by a majority of the Posts in said county or aforesaid area, at meetings of the Posts after due notice has been given to members thereof. When so approved, the application must be made in writing, by the Commanders of the Posts approving same, and shall be forwarded to the Department Council of Administration or Executive Committee. Upon approval by the Department Council of Administration and/or Executive Committee, and the NEC, a charter shall be issued.

Section 3. Each District or County Council shall hold an annual Convention. This annual Convention shall be held during the month of April or May of each year. Upon the application by a District or County Council, the Department Commander or the Department Council of Administration or Executive Committee, may approve a change in such date. At the annual Convention, there shall be transacted such business as may properly come before it, and the following District or County Council Officers shall be elected and ranked in the following order:
   a) Commander;
   b) Vice-Commanders;
   c) Judge Advocate;
   d) Adjutant;
   e) Chaplain;
   f) Quartermaster;
   g) Sergeant at Arms or Officer of the Day.

and such other Officers as may be determined by the Department and District or County Council Constitutions and Bylaws. The Officers elected at such Convention shall be installed prior to its adjournment.

The rules of order, as set forth for the National Convention, shall govern the procedure of the District or County Council Convention.

Section 4. The following shall have membership and vote in a District or County Council Convention:

a) National Commander and National Vice Commander;

b) Department Commander;

c) Members of Posts located in the District or Council;

d) The following District or County Council Officers:

1) Commander;

2) Vice-Commanders;

3) Judge Advocate;

4) Chief Aide;

5) Chief of Staff;

6) Adjutant;

7) Quartermaster;

8) Chaplain;

9) Patriotic Instructor;

10) Inspector;

11) Historian;

12) Service Officer;

13) Surgeon;

14) Sergeant-at-Arms or Officer of the Day; and such Officers that may be determined by the Department and District and County Council Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 5. The mode of procedure at a District or County Council Convention shall follow that of the National Convention. Post representation at District or County Council Conventions shall be the same as that provided for in the National Convention. A Post shall not be entitled to representation at a District or County Council Convention unless it is in good standing.

Section 6. Between conventions, each District or County Council shall be governed by a Council of Administration or Executive Committee which shall have all the powers of the District or County Council Convention, except where limited by the National Constitution and Bylaws, Department Constitution and Bylaws, or the Constitution and Bylaws of said District or County Council. Membership in the District or County Council of Administration or Executive Committee shall be as determined by the District or County Council Constitution and Bylaws. The District or County Council of Administration or Executive Committee shall meet at least once every three (3) months.
Section 7. It shall be the duty of the District or County Council Commander to preside at all meetings of the District or County Council Convention and Council of Administration or Executive Committee. The District or County Council Commander shall, as soon as possible after his or her election, appoint the following Officers, unless the same are elected at the District or County Council Convention:

a) Judge Advocate;
b) Adjutant
c) Quartermaster;
d) Chaplain;
e) Chief Aide;
f) Chief of Staff;
g) Historian;
h) Inspector;
i) Patriotic Instructor;
j) Sergeant-at-Arms or Officer of the Day;
k) Surgeon.

Section 8. In the event of a vacancy in the office of District or County Council Commander, his or her successor shall be chosen as may be determined by the District or County Council Constitution and Bylaws, or in the absence of such provisions, by an election held by the District or County Council of Administration or Executive Committee, to be convened not less than thirty (30) days hence, nor later than sixty (60) days after such vacancy occurs. Notice of at least ten (10) days shall be given for such election. Any other vacancies occurring in elective District or County Council offices shall be filled as provided by the District or County Council Constitution and Bylaws, or in the absence of such provisions, by an election held by the District or County Council of Administration or Executive Committee or at a meeting specially called for that purpose.

Section 9. Each District or County Council shall adopt a Constitution and Bylaws governing its conduct and conduct of Posts within its jurisdiction, provided that such Constitution and Bylaws are not inconsistent with the National Constitution and Bylaws and Department Constitution and Bylaws, as now existing or as may hereafter be in effect. Each District or County Council may take the necessary steps to abate any infractions of such Constitution and Bylaws subject to review on appeal to the NEC. All Constitution and Bylaws, or any amendments thereto, shall not become effective until certified by the NJA.

Section 10. Whenever less than three (3) Posts remain in existence in any District or County Council, the Department Council of Administration or Executive Committee may recommend revocation to the NEC of the charter of such District or County Council. Upon approval of the revocation of the charter by the NEC, the property of the District or County Council, together with its records, shall at once become the property of the respective Department. Without the consent of the NEC, no County may withdraw from a multi-County District if it would result in there being less than three (3) Counties remaining.
Section 11. District and County Council Meetings. All District and County Council meetings can be held in person, virtually or combination of both methods.

ARTICLE IX
Posts

Section 1. Upon the issuance of a charter to a Post, the NC shall cause said Post to be instituted within ninety (90) days, in accordance with the regulations of this Organization.

Section 2. The Installing Officers shall report, in writing, to the National Adjutant, giving the name and number of said Post, the number of members obligated at the time of installation, their names and addresses, and the names and addresses of the Officers for the first year. The Installing Officer shall deliver to the Post Commander, after he or she has been installed, the National Constitution and Bylaws, Manual of Ceremonies, and such other property as have been duly provided. He or she shall instruct the Officers of the Post in their duties and perform such other services as required.

Section 3. When two (2) or more Posts desire to consolidate, they shall hold a special meeting of each Post, called for that purpose, of which all members in good standing shall be given notice at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the special meeting. If two-thirds (2/3) of the members present (virtually, in-person, or telephonically) and voting at such meetings shall vote in the affirmative, the Commanders of the Posts shall certify that fact to the Department Commander. If two thirds (2/3) of the ballots reveal a vote in the affirmative, the Commanders of the Posts shall certify that fact to the Department Commander for his or her approval. Upon the approval by the Department, and then by the NEC, the consolidation shall become effective.

A new charter shall be issued to the consolidated Post. The consolidated Post shall elect new officers.

Section 4. No charter may be surrendered by any Post as long as ten (10) members thereof demand its continuance. This section shall not be applicable where a consolidation of Posts is effectuated.

Section 5. The Officers of each Post shall be, and shall rank, in the following order, each title to be preceded by the designation “Post”:

a) Commander;
b) Senior Vice-Commander;
c) Junior-Vice Commander;
d) Judge Advocate;
e) Chief of Staff;
f) Adjutant;
g) Quartermaster;
h) Chaplain;
i) Patriotic Instructor;
j) Sergeant-at-Arms or Officer of the Day;
k) Surgeon; and such other Officers as may be determined by the Department, District, County Council, and Post Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 6. The following Officers shall be elected by a majority vote of the members in good standing:

a) Commander;
b) Senior Vice-Commander;
c) Junior Vice-Commander (one or more);
d) Judge Advocate; and such other Officers as may be determined by the Post Constitution and Bylaws.

Notice of such election shall be given to all members in good standing, at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of the meeting. Nominations for these offices may be made at the meeting prior to the month in which elections shall take place. Elections shall take place at any time between January 1st and April 30th. The newly elected Officers shall be installed in their respective positions within sixty (60) days after they are elected or appointed, and shall take office immediately upon installation. Installation ceremonies may be conducted publicly; and shall be conducted by a member in good standing who shall be designated by a proper warrant of the Department Commander (or, where there is no Department, then by the NC). An installation ceremony shall be conducted by a Past Post Commander or a past or present Officer of a higher Echelon.

Section 6(a). If a Post fails to hold an election of Officers between January 1st and April 30th in any year, the NC shall direct such Post to hold an election, on proper notice, within thirty (30) days after such directive, and upon the failure of the Post to apply with such directive, the NC shall declare the offices of the Post vacant, and the Department Commander, and where there is no Department, the NC shall thereupon proceed to hold such election without delay and/or appoint an acting Commander.

Section 7. All Officers shall be elected for one (1) year. All Officers shall serve until their terms have expired or until a successor has been duly installed, whichever is later. All candidates shall be members in good standing of the Post for a period of six (6) months preceding his or her nomination or election. This shall not apply to a newly instituted Post. A Past Post Officer is one who, after having been elected or appointed and installed, has served until the end of his or her term.

Section 8. The Post Commander shall appoint, as soon as possible, all other Post Officers. These Post Officers may be installed immediately after appointment, and shall hold office until they have been properly relieved by the Post Commander. The Post Commander may remove, with or without cause, any of these Post Officers at his or her discretion.

Section 9. A majority vote shall be necessary for the election to any office in a Post. If no majority vote is achieved on the first ballot, the name of the candidate receiving the least number of votes shall be dropped and a new ballot taken, and so on in successive ballots, until a majority is reached.

Section 10. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Post Commander, the Post Senior Vice-Commander, shall at once succeed to the title and duties of Post Commander. All other vacancies shall be filled by ballot, provided due notice has been given to every member in good standing of the contemplated election. Posts may provide in their Bylaws for the removal of elected Officers.

Section 11. Meetings. Each Post shall hold at least four (4) meetings a year. Special meetings may be convened by order of the Post Commander at any time. Upon petition of seven (7) members in good standing, the Post Commander or the Post Adjutant shall call a special meeting.

Section 11(a). The regular order of business shall be followed at all meetings. At a special meeting, only the topic it was convened for shall be discussed and acted upon.

Section 11(b). Not less than six (6) members in good standing shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Post.

Section 11(c). A Post may, by majority vote at a special meeting properly called for that purpose, change its name, provided due notice has been given every member in good standing and further provided that the change is approved by the Department and NEC.

Section 12. Each Post must adopt a Constitution and/or Bylaws governing the conduct of the Post, provided that such Constitution and/or Bylaws are in concert with the National and Department Constitution and Bylaws. All Constitution and/or Bylaws, or any amendments thereto, shall not become effective until certified by the NJA.

Section 13. Post Meetings. All Post meetings can be held in person, virtually or combination of both methods.

ARTICLE X
Surrender of Charter

In the event of surrender of a charter by any Echelon or such charter being declared no longer valid by the NEC, all property or interest, owned by or under the direct or indirect control of such Echelon shall be transferred to the National Adjutant. This includes, without limitation, any building or the proceeds thereof, or other corporation or any entity under the control of such Echelon; whether it be real, personal or mixed property, including all funds and Special or Designated Fund Accounts, on deposit in banks or in the possession of any individual. Failure on the part of any individual or Echelon to honor a request for the surrender of such property shall be deemed to be an offense under Article XII, Discipline.

ARTICLE XI
Subsidiary Organizations

There is hereby recognized a Subsidiary Organization known as the Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary (JWVA), whose programs shall coordinate with the National JWV programs and which shall be governed by the JWV Constitution and these Bylaws, and such rules, regulations and policies as may be prescribed by the JWV Organization from time to time.
ARTICLE XII

Discipline

Section 1. Offenses by individual members, or members of any Subsidiary, shall be:

a) Disloyalty to the United States of America;

b) Violation of the oath of obligation;

c) Making a false statement on an application for membership;

d) The conviction for an offense constituting a felony;

e) Violation of any material provision of the Constitution and Bylaws of the National Organization, or any Echelon;

f) Violation or disobedience of any lawful orders issued by proper authority of the JWV;

g) Disorderly conduct at any meeting or function of the Organization;

h) Conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline;

i) Misappropriation or misapplication of funds belonging to this Organization or any of its Echelons;

j) Failure to make prompt and proper accounting and returns of any property or funds belonging to this Organization or any of its Echelons; and

k) The promotion of partisan politics by any act while at a meeting of any Echelon of the Organization, or in any other manner using this Organization for partisan political purposes.

Section 1(a). Penalties which may be assessed by the National Court against any individual are:

1) Expulsion or suspension from the JWV or any Subsidiary Organizations;

2) Removal or suspension from elected or appointed office;

3) Disqualification from holding office for a specified period;

4) Fine;

5) Reprimand;

6) Deletion from the rolls of the National Organization; and

7) Forfeiture of any or all ranks held in the JWV or any Subsidiary Organizations.

Section 1(b). During the pending of charges, no individual shall be suspended, except when an emergency exists, as determined by the NC and NJA.

Section 2. Offenses of Echelons under the authority of the JWV shall be:

a) Disloyalty to the United States of America;

b) Violation of any material provision of the National Constitution and Bylaws of the National Organization or other body superior to the Echelon being charged;

c) Conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline;

d) Violation or disobedience of any lawful orders issued by the NC or other proper authority of the JWV;
e) Misappropriation or misapplication of funds or property belonging to this Organization or any of its Echelons;
f) Failure to make prompt and proper accounting and returns of any property or funds belonging to JWV or any of its Echelons; and

g) The promotion of partisan politics by any act while at a meeting of any Echelon of this Organization, or in any other manner using this Organization for partisan political purposes.

Section 2(a). Penalties which may be assessed against any Echelon or Subsidiary under the authority of JWV:

1) Revocation of its charter;
2) Cancellation of its charter;
3) Suspension of its charter;
4) Fine; and
5) Reprimand.

Section 2(b). No Post, District or County Council, Department, or other Subsidiary Organization under the authority of JWV shall, during the pending of charges, be suspended unless an emergency exists as determined by the NC and NJA.

Section 3. Procedures. All accusations shall be made in the form of written charges and specifications and shall be submitted to a National Board of Inquiry and, if recommended, be tried by the National Court.

Section 3(a). All charges and specifications against any Echelon or Echelons of this organization, or against any member or against any Subsidiary member which is submitted to the National Adjutant shall promptly be forwarded to the National Board of Inquiry and, if applicable, to a Subsidiary or a member, Officer, unit, or Echelon thereof, and then to the NED and Secretary or Adjutant of a Subsidiary.

1) The Chairman of the National Board of Inquiry shall, in the first instance, determine if the matter is one for consideration by the National Board of Inquiry. If not, the Chairperson may refer it back to the proper unit or Echelon for its consideration and action. If retained for the National Board of Inquiry, it shall be the duty of the Chairperson to investigate the matter and he or she may call meetings of the Board.

2) If a charge and specification relate to a member, Officer, unit or Echelon of an Auxiliary, the Chairperson shall, in the first instance, request the Auxiliary to conduct its own investigation of any member, Officer, unit or Echelon of the Auxiliary and, within fifteen (15) days of such request, the Auxiliary shall report back to the Chairperson of the National Board of Inquiry.

3) The Chairperson shall, in the first instance, seek to mediate, if possible, and resolve the outstanding Charges, and if same is not resolved within thirty (30) days, a report shall be forwarded to the National Adjutant promptly after the conclusion of the investigation with findings and recommended actions to be taken.

4) If the National Board of Inquiry is convened and there is a finding of probable cause or no probable cause then the decision of the Board shall be sent to the National Adjutant. If there is a finding of probable cause, the National Adjutant shall forward the findings to the President of the National Court to convene a session of the Court.

5) No person who has served on the National Board of Inquiry considering the Charges and Specifications is eligible for service on the National Court in the trial of such charges.

6) Charges may be filled by National, any lower Echelon or any member in good standing.

Section 3(b). It shall be the duty of the President of the National Court to forward to the accused and to the NED and Secretary or Adjutant of any Auxiliary, if applicable, by registered, express or certified mail, return receipt requested, or other legal process, an exact copy of the Charges and Specifications, and to notify the accused of the time and place of the trial. The proof of such mailing, whether accepted or not by the accused, shall constitute sufficient and due notice.

The accused shall be entitled to at least twenty (20) days’ notice, and shall have the right to be represented by a person of their own choosing. After due notice of the time and place of the trial, the Court may proceed in all respects as if the accused were present and had pleaded “not guilty.”

Section 3(c). All members of the JWV or of any Auxiliary, when summoned by a Court or the National Organization, shall attend as witnesses, in person or virtually. Their testimony shall be taken under oath. The testimony of persons not members shall be likewise taken under oath.

Section 3(d). The National Organization shall not be liable for, nor required to pay, any costs or expenses of an accused; nor to provide for, or make available, any transportation or facilities for the accused, counsel, or any defense witnesses.

Section 3(e). In case the accused is charged with the “conviction of an offense constituting a felony under the law of the forum,” the record of his conviction by a Court of competent jurisdiction shall be prima facie evidence of his or her guilt of the offense of which he or she has been convicted.

Section 3(f). Upon receipt at National Headquarters of the filing of charges or offense against any accused and it appearing that an emergency exists or that the charges relate that a state of facts exists by reason of detailed information contained in such charges showing that probable cause exists, or there is a continued disregard of lawful orders which affects the welfare and good of this Organization, the NC may issue a cease-and-desist order, acting upon the review of the NJA. A copy of such Order shall also be sent to the NED or National Adjutant if the said order relates to a member, Officer, unit or Echelon of a Subsidiary Organization. However, such notice shall not act to extend any time periods set forth in this section. If any such accused shall fail to obey said order within twenty-four (24) hours, then the NC shall have the right to issue an order suspending such unit, Officer, member or person of this, or any Subsidiary Organization, immediately. If such a suspension order is issued, the NC shall forthwith refer the same to the National Board of Inquiry or appoint two (2) or more persons to make an investigation. Such investigation shall be completed and a report made within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the aforesaid Order. If the NC, after receipt of the report so determines, he or she may vacate or modify the aforementioned suspension. However, immediately upon the receipt of the report, the suspension shall stand if, in the judgment of the NC, it is proper. The NC shall direct the NJA to prepare charges and specifications to be submitted if such written accusations have not been already filed.
Section 3(g). As part of any settlement decision, judgment or sentence, the Court may assess all or part of the costs and expenses incurred by the National Organization or any Court or committee thereof in an amount as certified to by the NED.

Section 4. Charges against the NC shall be filed with the NJA and the National Adjutant, whose duty it shall be to issue a confidential notice to all members of the NEC with the call for a special meeting to consider the merits of such charges. No other matter shall be brought before such meeting. No person who is not a voting member of the NEC shall be admitted to this meeting unless ordered to appear as a witness. Before a trial may be ordered, two-thirds (2/3) of those members present must have voted to order such trial. Upon an affirmative vote being had, the charges shall be referred to a court which shall be composed of voting members of the NEC. Such court shall consist of seven (7) members designated by a majority of the members present at the said special meeting. An affirmative vote of five (5) members shall be necessary for conviction. The NJA shall be the prosecuting officer.

ARTICLE XIII
Licensing

Section 1. All merchandise to include but not limited to: badges, colors, emblems, buttons, logos or other regalia or other insignia of the Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America or JWV, and of all Subsidiary Organizations, shall be manufactured, purchased or sold only by authority of the NEC. No Echelon, Subsidiary Organization, or member thereof, shall hereafter engage, by contract or otherwise, in the manufacture, purchase or sale of such, unless authority for so doing has been obtained from the NEC.

Section 2. Permission for the use of the name “Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America” or “JWV,” “JWVA,” the JWV emblem, or any other JWV logo of identification, shall only be granted by the NED, to any individual, corporation, other entity, or Subsidiary Organization, Echelon or unit of the JWV, only upon a showing that the same is in the best interests of the Organization.

Section 3. The membership and status lists of the JWV, and any of its Echelons are proprietary and confidential, and may not be disseminated outside the Organization, without written express consent of NED and may not be used for personal or business reason. Failure to comply shall be a disciplinary offense under these Bylaws.

ARTICLE XIV
Bonding

Section 1. Bonding. Any person appointed or elected to any office, or any position within any Echelon of this Organization, or any affiliate thereof, the performance of whose duties shall consist of the collection, custody, control, or disbursement of funds, shall, prior to assuming said office, be bonded with an indemnity company, as surety in a sum equal to the amount of funds and the value of property for which he or she may be accountable during his or her term of office. The bond premium shall be paid from funds of the National Organization, Department, District or County Council, Post, Subsidiary Organization, or affiliate, as the case may be, to which each Officer or appointee so required to be bonded is accountable. The said bond shall be executed by a company or companies as surety which shall be acceptable to the National Organization. A certificate of the surety company evidencing the issuance of each such bond shall be filed with National Headquarters by the Echelon, Subsidiary Organization, or affiliate concerned within thirty days following the election or appointment of each person to be bonded under the provisions hereof. In the event of failure of compliance with any of the foregoing provisions, the NED shall notify the Echelons, Subsidiary Organizations, or affiliates concerned and the National Organization expressly shall not assume any liability as a result of such noncompliance and failure to obtain.

Section 1(a). The National Insurance Committee shall solicit bids for, and make available, blanket fidelity bonds to cover all employees and Officers elected or appointed whose duties and powers of office involve the collection, disbursement, and authorization of funds. This provision shall apply to the National Organization and its Headquarters, Departments, District or County Councils and Posts. The cost of the premium shall be paid by the individual Echelon to the National Organization. The amount of such premium shall constitute a debt of such Echelon to the National Organization. Where there are individuals handling funds in excess of the amount of blanket bonds, specific excess coverage shall immediately be obtained by that Echelon.

Section 1(b). JWV shall indemnify the NC, the NVC, the NEC and its members and National Officers in carrying out their duties who were or are a party to any inchoate, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, against judgment, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlements or expenses, including reasonable attorney’s fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her, in connection with such suit, action or proceeding, or any appeal therein, to the fullest extent permitted pursuant to apposite statute as the same exists or hereafter be amended but, in the case of such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the JWV to provide broader indemnification rights than such statute permitted the JWV prior to such amendment. In lieu thereof, the JWV may maintain insurance coverage to such purposes.

Section 1(c). The JWV shall indemnity any Chairperson, committee member, member, or employee acting within their scope of duties and policies of the JWV who is threatened to be made a party to any inchoate, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, arising out of his or her duties as a member of the NEC, Committee Chairperson, committee member or employee or otherwise of the JWV, against judgment, fines, penalties, amounts paid in settlements or expenses, including reasonable attorney’s fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him or her, in connection with such suit, action or proceeding, or any appeal therein, to the fullest extent permitted pursuant to apposite statute, as the same exists or hereafter be amended but, in the case of such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the JWV to provide broader indemnification rights than such statute permitted the JWV prior to such amendment. In the event that emergent action is required and the NC finds it in the best interest of the JWV, the NC, with the concurrence of the NJA or the NED, may authorize and expend such funds as may be reasonably required for appropriate defense and action until the next meeting of the NEC.
ARTICLE XV
Official Publication and Manual of Ceremonies

Section 1. A publication known as “The Jewish Veteran” is hereby designated as the official publication of JWV. The expense incurred in publishing “The Jewish Veteran” shall be paid by the National Organization.

Section 2. Notices published in “The Jewish Veteran” or on the official National JWV website shall constitute official notice to all members as required by the National Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 3. The “Manual of Ceremonies,” as adopted by the NEC, contains official regulations, protocols, policies, and ceremonies for the proper conduct of the various Echelons and members of the Organization. Such Manual shall have the same force and effect as a lawful order and, upon reasonable notice, may be amended at any meeting of the NEC.

ARTICLE XVI
Rules of Incorporation

Section 1. No Echelon of the JWV shall be allowed to incorporate or amend its articles of incorporation, under the laws of any State, territory, District, or other jurisdiction, for any purpose whatsoever, including the right to take title to real property, unless those desiring this incorporation or amendments, shall have:

a) Written application to the National Organization for permission to so incorporate or to amend its articles of incorporation;

b) Submitted, at the same time, a copy of the articles of incorporation or proposed amendments thereof; and

c) Secured approval for the proposed incorporation or amendments from the NJA and by the NEC.

Section 2. The NEC on the recommendation of the NJA may authorize the incorporation of any units or Echelons of the Organization, or any other corporation organized or Subordinate Echelon, only when it shall be established, that such incorporation is in the best interests of this Organization, provided that:

a) The proposed incorporation shall include a provision that the Corporation shall be subordinate to, and under the general supervision and control of, the JWV;

b) The Corporation is to be incorporated in accordance with applicable law;

c) The Articles of Incorporation shall provide that it shall be governed by the National Constitution and Bylaws, and standing policies;

d) Said Articles of Incorporation shall provide that the membership in said Corporation shall consist of all members of said unit or Echelon as defined in the National Constitution and Bylaws of the JWV;

e) Said Articles of Incorporation shall provide that said corporation shall have annual meetings with written notice given to said members; and
f) Said Articles of Incorporation shall provide that any Agreement to sell real property, before execution, must be approved by a majority vote of the members of said Corporation present and voting at a duly convened meeting with separate written notice at least fourteen (14) days prior to the meeting at which the proposal will be considered, and must be approved by the NEC. The notice shall contain:

1) Time and place of meeting;
2) Summary and/or copy of the Agreement, including all financial terms;
3) The name and identity of proposed purchaser; and
4) The notice may contain any other pertinent provisions;

ARTICLE XVII
Rules of Order

Section 1. The order of business at National Conventions, Department Conventions and District or County Council Conventions, and Post Installations shall be as provided for in the Manual of Ceremonies.

Section 2. The order of business may be suspended at any time, for a definite purpose, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Convention, to be taken without debate.

Section 3. Procedure at any meeting of any Echelon of this Organization shall be governed by the rules as laid down in “Robert’s Rules of Order,” unless superseded by a majority vote.

ARTICLE XVIII
Amendments

Section 1. These Bylaws may be amended in either of the following ways:

a) By the National Convention, by a majority vote, provided that notice of such amendments has been disseminated prior to the National Convention or posted prior to a subsequent session of the same Convention; or

b) By a Constitutional Convention. Representation at such Convention shall be limited to those delegates as set forth in Article V of these Bylaws; each Post shall be entitled to the same vote such Post had at the last National Convention immediately preceding such Constitutional Convention. A majority vote shall be necessary for the adoption of any amendment.
