

Jewish War Veterans of the United States of America

www.jwv.org | membership@jwv.org

Membership Matters

Why you should join JWV:

We stand for Jewish pride, identity, and American military service.
We protect ALL American veterans – all ages, races and creeds!

JWV Membership provides:

- Advocacy in state legislature and town halls for veterans' entitlements and benefits, civil rights, and Jewish issues
- A voice on "The Hill": JWV leadership advocates for all veterans and their families
- Access to National Service Officers that help you navigate the Department of Veterans Affairs, access your veteran benefits and assist in benefit disputes
- The Jewish Veteran, our national publication reporting on Jewish and veterans' issues
- A network of volunteers – JWV volunteered nearly 40,000 hours in over 80 VA facilities in 2014!

USA, in Israel and online!

- Insurance programs through Mercer Insurance Company
- Financial services, insurance programs, and a special JWV-supportive credit card through USAA
- Bi-annual meetings with major speakers, educational seminars, stimulating workshops, entertainment, tours and banquets, held in Washington, DC and a rotating list of major US cities
- Annual Mission to Israel

JWV Programs and Services include:

- Special care and attention to active duty Jewish service persons including Donations of Jewish Bibles, ritual needs and foodstuffs to members of the Armed Forces
- Education grants for worthy high school graduates who are children and grandchildren of JWV members
- Sponsorship of Boy Scout Troops and Girl Scout Troops, as well as recognition of Eagle Scouts and Gold Award winners
- Graduation gifts and recognition for military cadets
- Fight for earned recognition, awards, and medals for deserving service persons

The legacy of Jewish American service is preserved at the National Museum of American Jewish Military History, JWV's affiliate organization.

Visit The Museum during your next trip to Washington, DC!